

I agree with this application. The only suggestion I would make is that the FCC expand by at least 10% on all the HF ham bands the set aside for code only as a means of continuing to encourage this skill that can continue to be vital to the Amateur service and the country during emergencies.